Thousand Oaks, CA 91360

Email: jgilbert@highway61ent.com

Respondents:

Eric Michael Swalwell
U.S. Representative (CA-14)

Swalwell for Congress
Principal Campaign Committee
FEC ID: C00502294

Jurisdiction and Authority

This complaint is filed pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1). The Federal Election Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondents because Eric Michael Swalwell is a federal candidate and Swalwell for Congress is his authorized principal campaign committee under 52 U.S.C. § 30102(e)(1).

Year 2021 – 2025 Child Care Expenses

I. INTRODUCTION

This complaint concerns the permissible scope of campaign-funded childcare under the Federal Election Campaign Act (“FECA”) and Commission regulations. While the Commission has recognized that incremental childcare expenses directly attributable to campaign activity may be paid with campaign funds, such payments must be limited to costs that would not exist irrespective of the candidate’s campaign.

Swalwell’s publicly available Federal Election Commission reports from 2021 through 2025 reflect recurring, year-round childcare-related disbursements by Swalwell for Congress, including direct payments to a live-in childcare provider, reimbursements to the candidate, payroll tax reimbursements, and ongoing daycare tuition payments. The frequency, consistency, and structural pattern of these payments reflect continuous household childcare coverage rather than discrete, campaign-caused incremental expenses.

Swalwell’s reporting does not identify event-specific documentation demonstrating that each payment represented incremental childcare costs directly caused by campaign activity, as required under 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b), 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g), and relevant advisory opinions. Instead, the multi-year pattern reflects recurring weekly and monthly payments structured in a manner consistent with baseline domestic childcare obligations.

Because campaign funds may not be used to fulfill any expense that would exist irrespective of candidacy, the recurring and year-round nature of the reported payments warrants Commission review to determine whether the childcare obligation existed irrespective of the Respondent’s campaign and therefore constitutes prohibited personal use in violation of federal law.

Specifically, from 2021 through 2025, Swalwell’s committee made consistent weekly payments for childcare to:

- Amanda Barbosa (live-in nanny) (in 2021, 2025, but not 2023, 2024)
- Bambini Play & Learn childcare center
- Other childcare providers

The pattern, regularity, and magnitude of these payments warrant Commission review to determine whether they reflect baseline household childcare expenses that would exist irrespective of campaign activity.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g), campaign funds may not be converted to personal use.

“Personal use” is defined as the use of campaign funds:

“to fulfill any commitment, obligation, or expense of a person that would exist irrespective of the candidate’s election campaign.”

The Commission has held in Advisory Opinions:

- Advisory Opinion 2019-13 (MJ for Texas)
- Advisory Opinion 2022-07 (Swalwell)

that childcare expenses may be paid with campaign funds only to the extent they are:

- “A direct result of campaign activity; and”
- “Would not exist irrespective of the candidate’s campaign.”

Routine, baseline childcare that would exist regardless of campaign activity constitutes prohibited personal use.

The burden rests with the Respondents to demonstrate that each disbursement constituted an incremental expense directly caused by campaign activity. Where payments are recurring, year-round, and structured as payroll or tuition, the Commission must determine whether adequate contemporaneous documentation exists to establish incremental campaign causation.

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. 2021 Childcare Payments

In 2021, the committee made direct payments to Amanda Barbosa categorized as “Child Care for Campaign Event.”

Exhibit A - 2021 Acct

Total: $3,089.57

Most payments appear in December 2021, when there are unlikely to be campaign events.

B. 2022 Escalation to Weekly, High-Dollar Payments

In 2022, payments to Amanda Barbosa became consistent and substantial.

Exhibit B - 2022 Acct

Total paid to Barbosa in 2022: $46,929.70

Additionally, matching reimbursements were made to Eric Swalwell personally for identical amounts labeled “Child Care Campaign Event.”

This structure reflects recurring weekly childcare payments funded by the campaign throughout the year.

The frequency and continuity of these payments resemble ongoing household employment, not discrete campaign-event childcare. The publicly available reports do not identify documentation tying individual payments to discrete campaign activities.

C. 2023 Shift to Reimbursements and Daycare

In 2023:

- Direct payments to Barbosa ceased.
- Reimbursements to Eric Swalwell for “Childcare Reimbursement” totaled $26,547.18.

Exhibit C - 2023 Acct

- Direct payments to Bambini Childcare totaled $19,045.92.

Exhibit C - 2023 Acct

Additionally, a single reimbursement of $9,713.42 for “Payroll Tax for Campaign Childcare Reimbursement” was claimed in November 2023.

Exhibit C - 2023 Acct

The regularity and near-monthly nature of these payments indicate baseline childcare expenses, not campaign-specific incremental costs.

D. 2024 Continuation of Pattern

In 2024:

- Reimbursements to Eric Swalwell totaled $19,029.97

Exhibit D - 2024 Acct

- Direct payments to Bambini Play & Learn totaled $19,649.82

Exhibit D - 2024 Acct

Payments occurred throughout the year in a recurring pattern.

Publicly available FEC reports do not identify any campaign-event-specific documentation corresponding to these recurring payments.

In prior advisory opinions permitting childcare expenses, candidates segregated incremental costs tied to specific campaign events. The reporting here reflects recurring weekly payments structured like payroll or tuition, rather than event-specific childcare expenditures.

E. 2025 Resumption of Weekly Direct Payments

In 2025:

- Direct payments to Amanda Barbosa totaled $40,439.83

Exhibit E - 2025 Acct

- Reimbursements to Eric Swalwell totaled $57,132.43

Exhibit E - 2025 Acct

- Direct payments to Bambini totaled $14,811.46

Exhibit E - 2025 Acct

The payments are:

- Weekly or near-weekly
- Consistent in magnitude
- Structured like payroll

This mirrors ordinary domestic employment and standard daycare tuition.

IV. VIOLATIONS

A. Payments Were Not Limited to Incremental Campaign Activity

Under AO 2019-13 and AO 2022-07, childcare may only be paid by a campaign to the extent it:

1. Is directly caused by campaign activity; and
2. Would not exist irrespective of the campaign.

The pattern here shows:

- Ongoing weekly childcare
- Year-round daycare tuition
- Full-time nanny compensation
- Payroll tax reimbursements

The reporting pattern reflects continuous childcare coverage rather than episodic campaign-triggered expenses.

The consistent, year-round structure of these payments warrants Commission review to determine whether the childcare obligation existed irrespective of the Respondent's campaign and constitutes prohibited personal use under 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g).

B. Routine Daycare Tuition Is Presumptively Personal

Full-time daycare tuition at Bambini Play & Learn throughout 2023–2025

Exhibit C - 2023 Acct

Exhibit D - 2024 Acct

Exhibit E - 2025 Acct

appears unrelated to specific campaign events.

The Commission has never approved blanket year-round daycare coverage as campaign-fundable absent clear segregation of incremental campaign-caused expenses.

C. Reimbursement Structure Suggests Conversion

The recurring structure of:

- Direct payment to live in childcare provider
- Matching reimbursement to the candidate
- Payroll tax reimbursements

is inconsistent with the limitation that campaign funds may only cover incremental campaign-caused childcare expenses.

D. Distinguishing Advisory Opinion 2022-07

Advisory Opinion 2022-07 authorized reimbursement for incremental childcare expenses directly attributable to specific campaign activities supported by contemporaneous documentation. It did not approve blanket, year-round childcare coverage, full-time domestic employment, or recurring payroll-like payments absent event-specific documentation demonstrating incremental campaign causation.

V. TOTAL EXPOSURE

Across 2021-2025, total childcare-related payments and reimbursements (including additional providers, direct + reimbursements + daycare):

- 2021: $3,089.57
Exhibit A - 2021 Acct
- 2022: $99,280.40
Exhibit B - 2022 Acct
- 2023: $48,599.35 (combined reimbursements + daycare)
Exhibit C - 2023 Acct
- 2024: $39,554.79
Exhibit D - 2024 Acct
- 2025: $113,408.72
Exhibit E - 2025 Acct

Total childcare-related disbursements (2021-2025): $303,932.83

The multi-year, recurring nature of these payments warrants Commission review to determine whether campaign funds were used to satisfy expenses that would exist irrespective of candidacy.

VI. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION

Complainant respectfully requests that the Federal Election Commission:

1. Find reason to believe that Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b);
2. Investigate whether campaign funds were converted to personal use;
3. Subpoena documentation demonstrating how each childcare payment was tied to specific campaign events;
4. Determine whether reimbursements were accurately reported;
5. Impose appropriate civil penalties if violations are found

Complainant requests that this matter be handled under the Commission's enforcement procedures and that Respondents be required to provide contemporaneous documentation demonstrating the incremental campaign-related basis for each payment.

VII. CERTIFICATION

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
